

I'M GLAD YOU'RE HERE WITH ME TONIGHT

Well there's no need explaining
It really doesn't matter anyway
So you let the rain in
And bein' sorry is not enough to say
And though you'll never make it right
I'm glad you're here with me tonight

Hey babe the sun shines on you
Even though the skies are dark and gray
Well if I have to miss you
I'd just as soon begin some other day
And though you'll never make it right
I'm glad you're here with me tonight

Out there in the storm
Not everyone is safe, and warm

Now the leaves are falling
I guess they didn't have much more to say
And with the winter calling
It's gonna be a long and lonely day
And though you'll never make it right
I'm glad you're here with me tonight

Cuz' out there in the storm
Not everyone is safe, and warm...oh no....

And if we never make it right
I'm glad you're here with me tonight....

And if we never make it right
I'm glad you're here with me tonight....

So glad...to have you babe....
So glad baby....
Oh yes, feels like old times.....
